BLUEDU

BLUEDU FINAL
results ready for you to use

We are happy to announce that the final results from the BLUEDU project are now ready for you to be used in your teaching activity. This e-Book and its teaching materials, will enable VET teachers to understand and master blockchain topics and learn how to use that to teach in a VET environment.
Browse through the e-Book and get a solid introduction on the topic of blockchain and gain ideas and inspiration on how to integrate it into your teaching activity and how to evaluate the skills of your students on the topic.

The interactive e-Book, can be accessed in English, Turkish and Spanish on our website: https://bluedu.eu/

It has been a wonderful journey, and although this project ends, the partners will continue to work together in the future on the topic and promote mainstreaming of block chain across VET.

So follow us on our social media to updated on new activities in blockchain for VET:
